

Domestic & Inter-nation Adoption

Nothing is more exciting than beginning the process of bringing a child into your home. There are countless children across the globe in desperate need of a secure and loving home, and deciding to adopt one of them is a courageous and momentous decision. However, the international adoption process can be complicated and time-consuming. Hiring the right adoption attorney can make all the difference between a smooth and easy process and one filled with frustrations and heart-ache. Indiana Domestic and International Adoption Attorney Barbara J. Baird has helped many families in the state of Indiana seeking to adopt domestically and has assisted with the registration and finalization of those adoptions that have been accomplished internationally. Attorney Baird will use her extensive skill and knowledge set to ensure that the domestic adoption process is handled smoothly, and that you will be able to bring home your child.

There are a variety of crucial steps in the adoption process, which requires specific paperwork and the dedication of a top-notch adoption lawyer. For many families who choose the domestic adoption route, there is the journey of finding the child, experiencing the home-study, preparing for the child to enter the home, and going through the paperwork that will protect the child, the birth parents, and you. It is essential that families work with an agency and attorney experienced in this area of adoption. Attorney Baird has this necessary experience, and works with you at every step of the way, navigating the paperwork to meet the requirements on the state and federal levels. If you have sought adoption through international channels, Attorney Baird makes sure that your child is properly registered with the Indiana courts, and that the adoption is finalized so that you can begin your life with your child knowing that all has been well taken care of.

While adoption is a joyful process, it can also be one that brings up a lot of emotions. Barbara J. Baird is sensitive to all concerns and will discuss the adoption process in an open and accepting manner. Indiana Adoption Lawyer Barbara J. Baird promises compassionate, dedicated service to ensure that you are able to welcome the child into your family, and your heart.
